FAQS

Where should I drop my child off?

Please bring them to the front doors of the church where they can hang up their coat and get their nametag to check in. We do not want the children coming or going through the doors on the east side during KIC.

Can I join them for the meal?

Yes! Family and visitors are expected! The meals are open to all! Bring the entire family for a night free from cooking.

Is closing open to everyone?

Yes! Parents are encouraged to join us for closing, we love having the whole family together!

What are the guidelines for pickup/drop off for young kids?

Please see the note on the registration form.

What is the schedule like?

First we enjoy a meal together in the fellowship hall. The meal is served buffet style. Children may bring an offering at the beginning of the meal. Following the meal, kids are dismissed to their classrooms for their Bible lessons and games or crafts. At the end of each session, there is closing with songs, prayers, a short message and offering report. Dismissal is from each classroom. If parents attend closing, they may accompany them back to their classroom.

What is done with children's offering?

Each year the children work to raise money for a different mission project. It varies from year to year. Each week there is also a competition between boys and girls to see which group has the most offering.

Please Note:

We have a scan in and out procedure that is new this year. Every child needs to be checked in and checked out each week at the main door.

Children grade 2 and younger are to be picked up by a parent or designated adult or sibling at their classroom. They will not be released without someone to pick them up each week.

We provide this space below for parents to designate an alternative person when that is necessary.
